SAINT PAUL 'S VOICE

August/September 2009

On July 4th we celebrated Independence Day. I wonder if we took time to pause and remember the soldiers who are still fighting for our freedom in countries around the world? It is so easy to forget the many blessings that God has given us.

On a regular basis, I read in the newspapers or hear on the news about those injured soldiers who come home never to be the same again. Even some of the medical facilities are in shameful conditions that treat them. For many, these men and women will never be the same. Families split, finances are in ruin, and some of them end up on the streets.

I read a touching story in Parish Publications from '05 called, "A Sacrifice for a Soldier". It follows:

An old soldier, worn out in the service of his country, began playing the violin on the street to earn his living. One day, on the streets of Vienna, his hand trembled so severely that he could no longer play. A passerby stopped and said, "Friend, you are too old and too feeble. Give me your violin."

The stranger played so sweetly that a crowd soon gathered and coins poured into the tattered hat of the old soldier. The new violinist emptied the money into the soldier's pocket and played again, more sweetly than before. Again the hat was filled with money, which was turned over to the veteran soldier. The stranger finally handed the violin back and was on his way.

"Who is he?" asked the bystanders. "Why that is Amard Bucher, the great violinist," someone exclaimed.

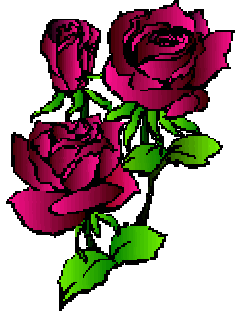

And so it was. The master violinist had taken the man's place, had assumed his poverty, endured his disgrace, played his music and earned his living. He had made a sacrifice for that old soldier.

"And the King will answer them, 'Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me.' "(Matthew 25:40)

May we always be aware of those in need and reach out and touch them with God's love and sacrifice for them. We will be blessed by God for we have been obedient to God's command to do so.

Love in Christ,

Pastor Mel Strucklin

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

One of the most valuable things we can do to heal one another is listen to each other's stories.

Rebecca Falls

I have been driven many times to my knees by the overwhelming conviction that I had nowhere else to go.

Abraham Lincoln

Never be afraid to try something new. Remember, amateurs built the ark. Professionals built the Titanic.

NEWS

RALLY DAY

Sunday, September 13 is Rally Day. A church picnic is planned with lots of fun and games. Come and help us kick off our Sunday School year by attending. We thank Carol Hilgartner and Patti Schunk for planning this event.

LONGVIEW NURSING HOMESCHEDULE CHANGE

Several times a year, St. Paul and Pastor Mel lead worship services at Long View Nursing Home in Manchester. Service time is at 1:30 on Sundays. If you wish to participate please be there by 1:15. The date of Sept. 20th has changed. We will not be leading the worship service that day. The August 9th date is still on the schedule for St. Paul to lead. Another date will be announced later.

CHANGE OF WORSHIP SERVICE START TIME

Beginning September 13 our worship start time will revert back to 9 a.m. We will go back to singing all the verses of the hymns starting on this day.

FLEA MARKET

Our next two flea markets will be August 15 and September 12th. The hours will continue to be from 8 a.m. until 4p.m. New excitement has been generated by the use of the new hot dog cart that the Outreach Committee purchased. It makes the selling of the food go so much better and keeps us in compliance with health regulations. A shed has also been purchased to store the cart for safekeeping. This adds to the success of our flea market and we thank all those who volunteer each month.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

All those who teach, volunteer, and, assist with our Christian Education and Vacation Bible School will be installed on Sunday, September 13 during worship. Come and lend your praise and support for those who teach our young folks.

The Lord's Laughter

From the Joyful Noiseletter, June - July 2005 edition

A young couple came into the office of a pastor for pre-nuptial counseling. The young man was nervous, and when the pastor asked him, "Are you entering this marriage of your own free will?" There was a long pause.

Finally, the fiancée looked at her sweetheart and said, "Put down, 'yes.' "

A pastor was planning to hold a wedding before the congregation right after the Sunday morning service. But he couldn't remember the names of the couple who were to be married.

"Will those wanting to get married please come to the front?" he asked.

Immediately, seven single women, two widows, four widowers, and five single men stepped to the front.

A father escorted the bride down the aisle and to the altar and the waiting groom. The bride then turned and kissed her father and placed something in his hand.

The pastor smiled, and guests in the front pew laughed. The bride had given back her father's credit card.
